Winter Guide

Saddle up for a weekend-worthy Elko County adventure

Few parts of our state brim with as much western heritage and unspoiled scenic splendor as northeastern Nevada. Elko beckons western buffs with buckaroo art, cowboy crafts, and hearty meals. Glacier-carved Lamoille Canyon and Angel Lake promise to steal your breath, both on snowy expeditions and through your camera lens. And the journey there and back promises more than a few surprises, too. So pack your boots (or snowshoes) and bring your appetite for an easygoing weekend of new Nevada memories.
